SELECT COUNCIL.

Camo, Ill , March 16th 1870. Present-His Honor and Councilmen Arter, Barclay, Jorgensen, Myer and O'Callohan-5.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The Clerk presented the report of the Finance Committee upon a petition from Ghio & Zanone referred to them, recommending that the amount prayed for in said petition be refunded to said Ghio & Zanone, and on motion the recommendations of said committee were concurred in, and the Clerk instructed to draw an order on the Treasury for the amount, viz: $100 80 by the following vote, viz;

Ayes—Arter, Barciay, Jorgensen, My-er and O'Callohan—5.

Nays—none. Report of the Finance committee upon the bill of the Hibernian Fire Company:

To the Honorable Council of the city of Coro, Illy.

GENTELMAN:—Your Finance Committee to whom the bill of the Hibernian Fire Co., No. 4, was referred respectfully beg leave to report—

That inasmuch as our previous recommedation of a charge in the ordinance provided for paying the expenses of Fire Companies so as to include the Hibernian No. 4, has not been carried out, and there is consequently no provision made for that company, we recommended that a special appropriation in city scrip, be made to pay the amount asked for by that company with the exception of ($184.40) one hundred and eighty four dollars and forty cents, for moving the engine house. We, however, do not condemn the claim, but as it is outside of the regular working expenses of the company we neither recommend its payment nor nous payment but respectfully ask the coun-cil to take that particular item under consideration and act upon it while in session, so that argument may be produced for or against it. Respectfully submitted,

JAS, CARROLL, Ch'n
WM. MARTIN,
JOHN W. MCKEE.
The report having been heretofore received and ordered filed by the board of Alderman-and on motion of Mr. Hendricks the board of Aldermen voted a special appropriation of $453 88 to said Fire Company- which action came before this board for concurrence, and on motion the action was now concurred in. Conneilman Barelay then moved that the amount recommended by the Committee be paid. Carried by the following vote viz:

Ayes-Arter, Barclay, Jorgenson, Meyer, O'Callahan-5,

Nays-none. The following bills having been allowed by the Board of Aldermen, were presened to this Board for concurrent action,
